WRATTEN LECTURE, 2015

‘The Photographer’s Eye: On Travel’

Michael Freeman

Michael Freeman is the author of more than 60 titles, including over 30 photographic textbooks that have sold more than 3 million copies.

In this latest in a series of lectures by nationally and internationally renowned photographers that the club has held in alternate years since 1999, Michael will be examining in depth how to meet the main challenge for every camera enthusiast, particularly with travel photography - how to get photos we can think of as our own, that no-one else has shot.

Wednesday 11 March at 8pm
